About Alysha Ellis

Alysha Ellis is a recent Cleveland State graduate who majored in Urban Regional Planning and minored in Business Management and Labor Relations. Alysha will continue her education at Cleveland State University (CSU) in the MBA program starting in the Spring of 2017. Upon her arrival at CSU, Alysha received her Associate's Degree from Mercyhurst University in 2013.

Alysha has been granted the opportunity to be the CEO of her family's start-up business, The Healthy Living Kitchen (HLK). Alysha has gained exceptional experience on operational strategy and community outreach, along with partnership and management skills through her role with HLK. At a young age Alysha knew she had an entrepreneurial spirit and would strive for greatness by creating relationships, being engaged in her community and always having a hunger for knowledge.

Alysha is also involved in a mentoring program as an Alumni at John Marshall High School, where she volunteers weekly in their business department assisting students in creating their own business ideas and business plans. Alysha is extremely passionate about her community and the City of Cleveland where her mother's family first migrated to from Puerto Rico in the mid-1900s. She represents the fourth generation of her family to live in Cleveland. Alysha hopes to continue impacting her campus and city through innovation and sustainability.

About "Discovering Your Dawn"

Based on a true story, Katherine writes of a college student who carries guilt from a tragedy she feels she could have prevented. Can she overcome the shadows that haunt her? A story of love, friendship, tragedy, hope and forgiveness that helps you ask the question: Have you discovered your dawn? Are you ready to bring to light the mistakes of your past in order to help you find your purpose and unlock your true potential?

Book Testimonial

"I just finished your book, and honestly, I cannot even express the way I feel right now. I still have goose bumps. I can relate to quite a few aspects, events, and feelings conveyed in your story and truly, from the bottom of my heart, want to thank you for sharing it with me! It was absolutely something I needed to read at this point in my life, and I want you to know that you really are an inspiration, and I just pray that one day I can be half as strong as you are!"
