ABOUT YOUR EXPERTS...

Katherine Miracle

Owner and Founder of Miracle Resources
Marketing and Personal Branding Expert

“I recently attended a workshop where Katherine was a featured speaker. Her energetic, personable delivery made Katherine easy to follow. She gave real world examples of challenges and creative solutions. After listening to Katherine’s presentation, I walked away with a renewed sense of courage about my job search. Katherine is a savvy marketing professional who truly wants to help you in your search for a new career opportunity. I highly recommend attending any seminar or event where where Katherine is presenting.”

April 2009, hired Katherine as a Career Coach

Jeff Nischwitz

Founder of Think Again Coaching
Relationship Building Expert

“Jeff Nischwitz is the human ‘LinkedIn’. Not only does he know everyone but he knows how to connect them perfectly. Jeff, with his entrepreneurial and corporate experience, cuts a wide wake and produces results, independently, through others, and for others. His new business is already making a mark and adding to his track record of helping individuals, groups, and corporations connect and profit. Keep up on what Jeff is doing and who he is helping and it might be you!”

Prior attendees are speaking up:

“Outstanding information and simple steps that will make a difference in my networking. I wish I would have come here when I first started searching for a new business. The skill sets can be used after I start my new career, and I would recommend this event to everyone who can or should be networking to be successful.”

“Fantastic! This workshop was energizing and informative. This is the best workshop I’ve experienced. Everyone needs to attend.”

“I hate to rate all 5s because it may seem superficial, but this exceeded my expectations. I love the tools, the examples, and understanding how to ask for help. This seminar gave me the courage to put my ideas into actions!”

“In one word, I would sum it up as “WOW”. The words and message was inspiring, direct and to the point. If I implement half of the ideas shared today I know that I will be even more successful (and I thought I already did an outstanding job).”

Think Miracle Networking is a certification program for people who are dedicated to becoming experts in networking, relationship building and results.

The certified networkers must complete the training session and attend one networking event with Jeff and Katherine to learn the techniques that work. Think Miracle Networking attendees also receive a workbook and pin upon completion of the training session.

Attendees will:

- Learn how to build relationships that will drive introductions and revenue development opportunities
- Discover tactics to improve the quantity and quality of your referrals and opportunities
- Get access to strategies to help you sell yourself as a high value return on investment
- Learn networking tactics that will increase your referrals & opportunities by 400 - 500% or more
- Be better prepared for opportunities that you pursue
